

Disclaimer

Please note that this progression map is created by Twinkl and is based on our interpretation of the National Curriculum objectives and content domain coverage. It is intended to serve as a guide for educators, who should use their professional judgement and consider the abilities of their own students when planning and delivering lessons.

Phrase, Sentence and Clause Types

READ
WRITE
SUCCEED

Year 1

Simple Describing Sentences

Use a noun, a verb and an adjective.

Sheema tidied her messy bedroom.
It was a beautiful rainbow.

And Sentences

Use 'and' to join phrases and as a conjunction to join clauses.

The cat played and purred loudly.
The dinosaur was tall and he ate leaves.

Double Ad Descriptions

These sentences have two adjectives before a noun.

She was a brave, strong princess...
The green, scaly monster...

Noise then a Cause Sentences

Use a sound word and an exclamation mark, followed by a cause of the noise.

Boom! The firework went off.
Squelch! Her foot got stuck in the mud.

5Ws Questions

Write short questions using the 5Ws.

Why had he disappeared?
When would she return?
What had gone wrong?
Who was it?
Where was Peter's toy car?

Year 2

Double Ad Sentences

Use two adjectives before a first noun and then a second noun to make a sentence.

The green, scaly monster laid in his deep, dark cave.

List Sentences

Use three adjectives before a noun with separating commas.

Keisha held the large, black, spindly spider.

BOBS Sentences

Use 'but', 'or', 'because', 'so' to join two clauses.

The marathon was very tiring but Harry was determined to finish the race.

-ed then -ed Sentences

Use two past tense -ed verbs linked with 'and'.

The mouse scampered across the floor and entered into its hole.

Simile Sentences

Use a simile to describe a noun using as or like.

The night air was as black as coal.

When, If, That Sentences

Use 'when', 'if', 'that' to join two clauses.

I felt excited when I arrived at the park.

-ly Sentences

Use an -ly adverb to open a sentence followed by a comma.

Silently, she tiptoed out of her bedroom.

What! Exclamation Sentences

Open a sentence with 'What' and end with a verb and a **!

What a loud bang that was!

Phrase, Sentence and Clause Types

READ
WRITE
SUCCEED

Year 3

Speech Sentences

Use inverted commas; a comma, exclamation mark or question mark, and a said synonym.

"Go for it!" exclaimed Heidi.

Time Sentences

Use a time conjunction, adverb or preposition to open a sentence followed by a comma.

Before he ate lunch, Hazim's tummy rumbled loudly.

Emotion Sentences

Use an emotion adjective to open a sentence followed by a comma.

Silent, Keisha held her breath under the bed.

With A... Sentence

Use the phrase 'With a...' followed by an action and a comma.

With a sigh of relief, Miss Lockley walked out of the classroom.

When the ... Sentences

Use the conjunction 'When' followed by an action starting with 'the' and a comma.

When the sound of laughter stopped, Farah tried to continue.

Place Sentences

Use a place conjunction, adverb or preposition to open a sentence followed by a comma.

Behind the clouds, the sun tried its best to shine.

When, If, Although Sentences

Main clause + 'when', 'if', 'although' to start a subordinate clause or

'When', 'If', 'Although' to start a subordinate clause followed by a comma.

I left my coat at home although it was raining.

Although it was raining, I left my coat at home.

twinkl

Phrase, Sentence and Clause Types

READ
WRITE
SUCCEED

Year 4

Where, When, How Sentences

Use a fronted adverbial of place (prepositional phrase), an adverbial of time and an adverb/adverbial of manner.

In the town square, at 5 o'clock, the morning sun rose slowly.

Where, When and How Sentences: The Sequel

Use an adverbial of place (prepositional phrase), an adverbial of time and an adverb/adverbial of manner in different positions within a sentence.

Last Tuesday, members of the North Kent Foxhounds hunting party were suddenly and mysteriously caught unawares when something or someone caused their horses to stampede to and fro uncontrollably across the North Downs.

-ing + Character Sentences

Use an -ing verb followed by a comma, and then the character's name or a pronoun.

Laughing, Mum helped Daniel off the floor.

Double -ed Sentences

Use two -ed adjectives (___ and ___) followed by a comma.

Relaxed and contented, Nicole sipped on her ice-cold milkshake.

Double -ly Sentences

Use two -ly adjectives (___ and ___) followed by a comma.

Shakily and slowly, George got back onto his feet.

Speaker First Sentences

Write the speaker's name (or pronoun) followed by a said synonym and comma. Then, write the speech in inverted commas ending in a full stop, ! or **?

The train driver yelled, "All aboard!"

Present Perfect Sentences

start with a pronoun (I/You/We/They) + have + -ed verb or a pronoun (Name/He/She/It) + has + -ed verb.

You have travelled a long way.
Kasim has climbed the mountain.

twinkl

Phrase, Sentence and Clause Types

READ
WRITE
SUCCEED

Year 5

Short, Snappy Sentences

A short, snappy sentence used to add impact, emphasis or tension.

It happened again.

A Phrase + A Phrase Phrase!

A noun phrase followed by a prepositional phrase.

...the mischievous pixie with pointed ears...

...the eerie house beyond the forest...

Character Adjective Pair Sentences

Introduce a noun/character, add a dash and an adjective pair, followed by another dash.

Komodo dragons - poisonous and speedy - are one of the animal kingdom's most effective hunters.

Sandwich Sentences

These include a noun or noun phrase, followed by a 'sandwich clause' starting with 'who', 'which', 'when' or 'where' enclosed in commas, before adding the final part of the sentence.

The bagpiper, who had not practised for months, sounded like a wailing cat.

If, If, Then Sentences

Use two subordinate clauses starting with 'If' that include a modal verb, separate with commas and finish with a main clause starting with 'then' and a modal verb.

If their footsteps could have been quieter, if the floorboards might have been less creaky, then they may have got away with it.

Question After Question Sentences

A question followed by further related questions used to add impact, confusion or tension.

Who or what had dug the hole? A rabbit? A badger? Or something more sinister?

Additional Information Sentences

Introduce a noun, add a bracket and additional information about the noun, followed by another bracket.

Mount Everest (8848 metres) is the tallest mountain in the world.

Personifying Weather Sentences

A sentence where the weather is given a human trait.

The sun embraced the forest with its warmth.

Past Perfect Sentences

Use a pronoun + had + an -ed verb.

Julia had arrived at school before me.

twinkl

Phrase, Sentence and Clause Types

READ
WRITE
SUCCEED

Year 6

Description + Detail Sentences

A short clause, a colon, added detail.

Then he saw it: a pair of beady eyes stared towards him and metal claws grazed the bonnet's rusted skin.

Outside/Inside Sentences

Describe a character's feelings on the outside, followed by a semi-colon and then their true inner feelings.

The shop assistant smiled warmly at the rude customer; inside however, his rage was simmering.

Imagine 3 Sentences

Start with the word 'Imagine', then describe three things about a character/place/time separated by commas, add a colon then introduce a character/place/time with those characteristics.

Imagine a time when a bus fare was just two pence, when the TV only had three channels, when the Internet was just a distant dream: let me take you back in time to the 1980s.

3 Points and A Dash Questions

Start with a list of three adjectives/nouns separated by commas, add a dash and a relevant (possibly rhetorical) question.

Loyalty, kindness, empathy - which is the most important quality of a true friend?

Some; Others Sentences

Start a clause with 'Some', add a semi-colon, start the second clause with 'others'.

Some people are talented dancers; others have two left feet.

Tell Me: Show Me Three Sentences

Start with a clause, add a colon, list three examples separated by commas.

The house had seen better days: windows smashed, suffocating in ivy and crumbling stone walls.

If... Subjunctive Sentences

Start a sentence with 'If I/It/He/She/We were' followed by a comma.

If it were possible, I'd have a sloth as a pet.

Perfectly Past Passive Sentences

Start with a fronted adverbial followed by a comma, introduce a noun/character (the object), add 'had been' and complete the sentence.

While he was sleeping, the giraffe's slippers had been stolen.

Question Tag Sentences

A statement, followed by a comma + question tag.

This is your little dog, isn't it?

It would be lovely to live in Paris, wouldn't it?

Metaphor Sentences

A sentence where a noun is described by saying it is something else.

My brain is cotton wool.

Bullet Point Sentences

Introduce a list followed by a colon, then begin each item with a bullet point followed by a semi-colon.

To make a potion, you will need three ingredients:

- eye of newt;
- toe of frog;
- wool of bat.

twinkl