

Diary Entries

Punctuation

Language Features

Structure, Organisation & Layout

Year

1

To open with the date and 'Dear Diary'.

To describe the writer's feelings.

To use the words 'I', 'me', 'we' and 'our'.

To sequence simple sentences to recount the event.

To use adjectives to describe feelings.

To use capital letters for names of people and places and for 'I'.

To use the correct past tense verb forms (-ed endings).

Aa

Bb

Year

2

To write in the first person.

To describe the writer's thoughts and feelings.

To organise ideas into chronological order.

To open with the date and 'Dear Diary'.

To write in the past tense.

To use simple time conjunctions to sequence events (first/then/next).

Year

3

To include date/time of writing.

To include 'Dear Diary' followed by a comma.

Include concluding sentences: what are they looking forward to next?

e feelings.

se the past verb form dings).

2

at ing ext?

To describe the main events using past tense.

To begin to use adverbs and prepositions of time and place.

To write in the first person.

Sequence the events in chronological paragraphs.

To include a short introduction to set the scene.

To include thoughts and feelings.

Year 4

To include date/time of writing.

To include thoughts and

To include 'Dear Diary' followed by a comma.

To include a short introduction to set the scene.

To finish a conclusion to summarise what the character is looking forward

To describe the main events using past tense.

To punctuate fronted adverbials using a comma.

To use present perfect tense where appropriate.

To use adverbials of time, place and manner.

Sequence the events in chronological paragraphs.

To write in the first person.

Year 5

To include date/time of writing.

To use paragraphs to organise writer's thoughts.

To include an introduction to establish the context.

To show writer's point of view, thoughts and feelings.

To use tense purpose and feelings.

To finish with onclusion summarise at the writer ooking ward to.

Sequence
: events in onological agraphs.

organise the

To chose the correct tense according to the purpose of the sentence.

Year

6

To choose appropriate adverbials
to show time, place, manner, how often.

To include a conclusion to summarise key thoughts and what the writer is looking forward to.

To write in the first person.

To include date/
time of writing.

To show the writer's point of view, thoughts and feelings.

To include an introduction to establish the context.

To include a conclusion to summarise key thought and what the writer is looking forward to.

To use a range of devices to build cohesion.

To write in first person.

To link ideas across paragraphs using cohesive devices.

To use informal language ('I asked' rather than
'I required').

To choose the correct tense
according to the purpose of the sentence.

Disclaimer: Please note that this progression map is created by Twinkl and is based on our interpretation of the National Curriculum objectives and content domain coverage. It is intended to serve as a guide for educators, who should use their professional judgement and consider the abilities of their own students when planning and delivering lessons.