

Newspaper Report

Punctuation

Language Features

Structure, Organisation
& Layout

To end with a question about what might happen next.

To use the correct past tense verb form (-ed endings).

Year

2

To include a picture with a short caption.

To use conjunctions to link sentences.

To use the words 'he'/'she'/'it'/'they'.

To sequence sentences to recount the event.

To use simple time conjunctions to sequence events (first/then/next).

To include a picture with a caption.

To include a short headline.

To write in the past tense.

To write in the third person.

Year

1

To use conjunctions to extend sentences.

Year

3

To include direct speech.

and

To include an introduction that answers the 5Ws.

To include facts about

Year 4

To include a headline.

To open with the 5Ws.

To write about the events in chronological order.

To end with a question about what might happen next.

To begin to punctuate fronted adverbials with a comma.

To use inverted commas to punctuate direct speech.

To include direct speech.

To include a picture and caption.

To write in the third person.

To write in the past tense.

To use a headline.

To include a conclusion that rounds off the piece.

To begin to use adverbs and prepositions to show time and place.

To include facts about the main event.

To include an introduction that answers the 5Ws.

To include a conclusion that rounds off the piece.

To include direct and reported speech.

To write about the main events in the third person.

To include an eye-catching headline.

To use reported speech.

To use direct speech.

To punctuate fronted adverbials with a comma.

To use inverted commas and other punctuation to indicate direct speech.

To include a headline.

To include a conclusion that rounds off the piece and suggests what might happen next.

To include an introduction that answers the 5Ws.

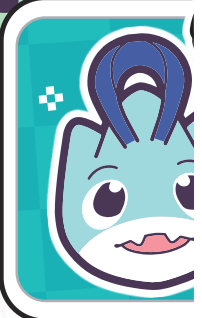

To include facts about the main event.

To elaborate on the main event.

To include a picture and caption.

To use adverbials of time, place and manner.

Year 5

include a by-line.

elaborate on key events.

include eye-witness
accounts.

include an introductory sentence that answers the 5Ws.

include a conclusion rounding off and explaining what might happen next.

include a headline that uses a rhyme or alliteration.

To include a
headline that uses
a pun/rhyme or alliteration.

To elaborate on key events.

To shift between levels of formality according to the purpose of the sentence. (For example, eye-witness accounts may be less formal than the reporter's voice).

To choose the correct tense according to the purpose of the sentence.

To use relative clauses.

To write about the main events in third person.

To use dashes to mark the boundary between independent clauses.

To use
brackets
to indicate parenthesis.

To use
commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity.

To write about the main events in third person.

To use relative clauses.

To choose the correct tense according to the purpose of the sentence.

To use the passive voice, where appropriate.

To include a conclusion rounding off the piece and explaining what might happen next

Year

6

To include a by-line.

To include a sub-headline.

To include eye-witness
accounts and reactions.

To include an introductory sentence that answers the 5Ws.

Disclaimer: Please note that this progression map is created by Twinkl and is based on our interpretation of the National Curriculum objectives and content domain coverage. It is intended to serve as a guide for educators, who should use their professional judgement and consider the abilities of their own students when planning and delivering lessons.

READ
WRITE
SUCCEED

